Federal officers to New York.

The next prisoner brought up was Joseph Dodds, twenty-nine years old, who is employed as a nurse at sallors' Saug Harbor, S. I. The charge against him was breaking into litchard B. Treacy's store, 56 court street, one night hist week and stoaling musical instruments worth $50.

"I am not guilty," he said. "I can prove that I was not in Brooklyn at the time of the robbery. I was no Staten Island."

Justice Walsh set his case down for examination Wednesday morning at 9.30.

The other prisoners, Martin Kennedy, Michael Conway and Michael Nagie, who look upon the arrest of these men as most important. During the past year many small post-offices in the vicinity of New York have been robbed, the thieves escaping in every instance. The rost-office at Bath Beach has been twice entered, the thieves getting away with $1,000 worth of stamps and money on each o reasion.
